Tony Rudgers came on the mat to grab a 4-2 victory over Jack Yellowtt to but the Warriors margin up to 12-8.

Whity Edwards and Pick Cheek slapped each other around before coming up with a 2-2 standstill. Since neither contestant had an advantage of riding time both teams were awarded two points and the result was an official draw.

Joe Patalive of Wakefield pinned Larry Payne after 1:04 seconds of the third period to give the Warriors a 19-10 advantage.

Steve Hall bagged a 4-2 nod over Episcopal's Ray York and Porky Pennell spanked Episcopal's Bing Sherill for a 5-3 triumph to account for the final score.

Coach Vic Blue appeared well satisfied with all of his lads, many of whom were inserted into the contest against boys of higher weight classes as a result of the virus epidemic that has sidelined so many of Wakefield's matmen.

"Win, lose, or draw, every boy did an excellent job and I was very well pleased," Blue commented.
